

MPH Driving Schools HPDE 2021 High Performance Driving Schools

Become a qualified driver at MPH

- Attend one of our MPH Track HPDE Schools
- Attend one of our Track organized events Vipers, Mustangs & Corvettes.
- Attend one of our Sponsored events, PCA, NASA, RMVR & SCCA.
- Provide us with your current driving experiences that may qualify you.

What can a qualified driver do at MPH?

- Drive on the track on Open Track days (Members and Non-Members).
- Qualified to become a Guardrail Club Driving Member.
- Drive at appropriate events such as Vipers, Mustang & Corvette.
- Renting the track for private tracks days for you and your friends.

What is a qualified driver at MPH?

- A MPH qualified driver is one who has completed our Full Throttle driving school in the last two years and continued to do track days during that time.
- Has completed one of our Track Guys Driving schools at an event in the last two years such as the Viper Rendezvous, Mustang Roundup, Hastings Ford, Harchelroad Motors or Jerry's Chevrolet event with a school and instructor.
- Has a driving certificate from another qualified school at another track.
- Has a current NASA, SCCA, PCA, RMVR License or another acceptable Sanctioning body Competition License?
- Experience at other road course tracks of at least three track days and can provide us with qualifying information on the drivers' current skills and experiences.